

Bibliography

Dennis L. Bryant, Maritime Regulatory Consulting

Law Review Articles

Historical and Legal Aspects of Maritime Security

University of San Francisco Maritime Law Journal, 17 USFMLJ 1 (2004)

The Maritime Compliance Program – Foghorn Protection for the Shipowner

Tulane Maritime Law Journal, 24 TMLJ 591 (2000)

Articles and Papers

Low bridge, everybody down

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – July 2010

Pirates burn Galveston

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – June 2010

Pirates, ransoms, and the US Government

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – May 2010

Incidental discharges from small commercial vessels

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – April 2010

Asian carp control

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – March 2010

Are EFTs subject to attachment under US admiralty rules?

Maritime Gateway – February 2010

The fallacy of technology-based security

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – February 2010

Demise of the single-hull tanker

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – January 2010

Another nice mess

Maritime Gateway - December 2009

Alice in Wonderland and the weaponizing of ships

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – December 2009

Penny wise and pound foolish

Sidelights – December 2009

Sargasso Sea – active ecosystem and growing dump

Maritime Technology Reporter – December 2009

North American Arctic – Shortcut or destination

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – November 2009

Dunnage crisis

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – October 2009

The Pacific Adventurer disaster

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – September 2009

Counter-piracy efforts updated

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – August 2009

Milking the maritime cow

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – July 2009

Ratcheting down the risk of piracy

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – June 2009

ECA for all

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – May 2009

Holding your breath

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – April 2009

Regulation of discharges incidental to normal operations of a vessel

Green Ship Technology Conference (Hamburg, Germany) – March 25, 2009

Noise pollution – an upcoming challenge

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – March 2009

Salvage and marine firefighting

Co-authored with John Witte, American Salvage Association

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – February 2009

Discharges incidental to the normal operation of a vessel

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Fourth Quarter 2008

AIS expansion proposed

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – January 2009

Executive commentary

The Journal of Commerce Magazine – January 2009

Marine casualty investigation

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – December 2008

Regulation of incidental discharges

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – November 2008

Oil spill response plan requirements for nontank vessels

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Third Quarter 2008

USCG raises COFR amounts

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – October 2008

Sealing in the container problem

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – October 2008

Regulation of ship design and construction

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – September 2008

Implications of the Jho doctrine

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – August 2008

Nontank vessel response plan requirements

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – July 2008

Hours of rest for seafarers

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Second Quarter 2008

Coast Guard Authorization Act – provisions of interest

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – June 2008

Air emissions update

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – May 2008

Places of refuge

Co-authored with Brian Starer

Swedish Club Letter - May 2008

Biofouling

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – April 2008

Hull husbandry

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 6, page 22 (1st Quarter 2008)

The COFRs are coming

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – March 2008

CBP advance trade data proposal

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – February 2008

100 percent politics

The Journal of Commerce Magazine – January 7, 2008

Executive commentary

The Journal of Commerce Magazine – January 7, 2008

Augmented reality and e-navigation

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – January 2008

Container scanning and political cover

The Journal of Commerce – December 2007

USCG environmental crime disclosure policy

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – December 2007

We don't criminalize accidents

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 5, page 189 (3rd-4th Quarters 2007)

State may impose reasonable restrictions on maritime commerce

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 5, page 201 (3rd-4th Quarters 2007)

The TWIC program and a failure of imagination

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – November 2007

Vessel environmental issues – the lessor's perspective

Co-authored with Nancy Hengen

NY Business Law Journal – Fall 2007

US policy regarding places of refuge

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – October 2007

Questionable justice in the high north

Co-authored with Jim Lawrence

Connecticut Maritime Association (CMA) newsletter - October 2007

Re-balancing the Coast Guard

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – September 2007

Ballast water management – a way forward

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – August 2007

Quarantine and isolation

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – July 2007

Safety of imported foods – swamped by the 21st century

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 5, page 78 (2nd Quarter, 2007)

Pet food recall fallout

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – June 2007

Air emissions, bunkers, and charters

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – May 2007

Forum non conveniens – Sinochem International v. Malaysia International Shipping

Journal of International Maritime Law – Vol. 13, page 89 (March-April 2007)

Gross negligence costs $150,000 and more

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – April 2007

Marine salvage and firefighting planning requirement
Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 5, page 8 (1st Quarter, 2007)

Salvage and firefighting delayed again
Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – March 2007

TWIC program – phase one
Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – February 2007

Vessel security program upheld
Co-authored with Captain Charles D. Michel, USCG
Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – January 2007

Regulation of air emissions from ships – update
Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 4, page 213 (3rd-4th Quarters 2006)

Oily water separators
Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – December 2006

Negligence, manslaughter, and the unique case of Captain Schröder
Lloyd's List – Thursday, November 23, 2006

TWIC challenges – greater than we knew
Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – November 2006

Whales – right, wrong, or indifferent
Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – October 2006

Appellate court upholds USCG security program
Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 4, page 217 (3rd-4th Quarters 2006)

TWIC – a bridge too far
Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – September 2006

LNG Imports Regulated Well Beyond Risk Presented
Natural Gas & Electricity – August 2006

New OPA 90 limits of liability
Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – August 2006

TWIC zeal untempered

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – July 2006

TWIC – ready for prime time

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 4, page 88 (2nd Quarter 2006)

Forum selection clause – Hellenic Investment Fund v. DNV

Journal of International Maritime Law – Vol. 12 (2006)

TWIC – this time for real

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – June 2006

C-TAP and the GreenLane

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – May 2006

Oily water separators & significant harm to the environment

Co-authored with George Gabel

The Standard Club Bulletin – May 2006

Exon-Florio, CFIUS, and foreigners

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – April 2006

Significant harm to the environment

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 4, page 10 (1st Quarter 2006)

Reporting significant harm to the environment

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – March 2006

Alcohol testing – the two-hour rule

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – February 2006

Preparing for the avian flu pandemic

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – January 2006

CARB legal authority on the high seas

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 3, page 331 (4th Quarter – 2005)

My time is NOT your time

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – December 2005

California – the incredible green hulk

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – November 2005

Cargo security strategy

Metropolitan Corporate Counsel – October 2005

Wood packaging materials

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – October 2005

Harbor maintenance tax

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 3, page 252 (3rd Quarter 2005)

US LNG industry to face even greater resistance

LNG Observer – September 2005

Harbor maintenance tax

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – September 2005

Potable water

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – August 2005

Freight charges – liability of consignee – Eimskip v. Atlantic Fish Market

Journal of International Maritime Law – Vol. 11, page 256 (July-August 2005)

Sewage happens

Maritime Reporter & Engineering news – July 2005

Government Potpourri

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 3, page 119 (2nd Quarter 2005)

Crossing the boundary lines

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – June 2005

Do you have a permit?

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – May 2005

Lemons, tiles, and false assumptions

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – April 2005

The accident of strict liability

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 3, page 23 (1st Quarter 2005)

Nontank vessel response plans

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – March 2005

The cost of non-compliance

International Congress on Maritime Security – March 2005

Tuns, tons, and tonnage

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – February 2005

Cargo security strategy

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – January 2005

The U.S. Ocean Dumping Act

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – December 2004

Air emissions from ships

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – November 2004

U.S. regulation of cruise ships

Organization of American States CIP Magazine - November 2004

Asleep at the wheel

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – October 2004

Signed confessions

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – September 2004

Declaration of security

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – August 2004

Ballast water management acquiring teeth

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – July 2004

Regulation of air emissions from ships

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 2, page 318 (2nd Quarter 2004)

Comments on the Ocean Policy Study

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – June 2004

Misplacing the place of refuge

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – May 2004

U.S. manifest presentation requirements

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – April 2004

Port pileup

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – March 2004

Port Security – A Historical Perspective

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – March 2004

Continuous synopsis record

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – February 2004

Recycling of ships

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – January 2004

Careful, your TBT may be showing

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – December 2003

At sea with U.S. maritime security

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – November 2003

The U.S. territorial sea and other lines in the water

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – October 2003

Twisting in the cross-currents

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 1, page 182 (3rd Quarter 2003)

Living for the rules

Fairplay International Shipping Weekly – September 11, 2003

Careful, your species may be non-indigenous

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – September 2003

Confused seas

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – August 2003

Maritime insecurity

Co-authored with Brian Starer

Swedish Club Letter – August 2003

Show me the grant money

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – July 2003

Comparison of ISPS Code and MTSA

Benedict's Maritime Bulletin – Vol. 1, page 93 (2nd Quarter 2003)

AIS – Panacea of Pandora's Box

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – June 2003

Transparency

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – May 2003

Advance notices of arrival

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – April 2003

Open letter to the Coast Guard regarding maritime security

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – March 2003

U.S. vessel security plans

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – February 2003

Summary of Maritime Transportation Security Act

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – January 2003

Better safe than sorry

P&I International – January 2003

U.S. Maritime Security

Ports of the World – Annual Publication by Lloyd's List – 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008

Maritime Transportation Security Act

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – December 2002

New maritime security requirements

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – November 2002

The High Risk Pool of Cargo and Maritime Security

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – October 2002

Crewing and maritime security

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – September 2002

Maritime Security and the Hazards of Unilateralism

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – August 2002

Terrorism Threat and the Immediate Reaction

Maritime Reporter & Engineering News – July 2002

Fundamentals of Maritime Law

Co-authored with Lennard Rambusch for the International Bar Association (2000)

Books

The Law of Maritime Security

Co-authored with Douglas Burnett

Chapter in Vessel Security Officer by Joseph Ahlstrom

Cornell Maritime Press – Centreville, Maryland (2006)

Environmental Crimes Prosecutions in Maritime Industry

Chapter in Corporate Fraud Investigations and Compliance Programs by Eugene

Propper

Oceana Publications, Inc. – Dobbs Ferry, NY (2000)

Speaking Engagements

Maritime Security – The New Administration: First Quarter Report Card

Maritime Security Conference – Fort Lauderdale, FL – May 13, 2009

Developments in environmental regulation in the United States

Green Ship Technology Conference (Hamburg, Germany) – March 25, 2009

TWIC and credentialing

U.S. Maritime Security Conference – New York City, NY – November 28, 2007

E-navigation and the investigation of marine casualties

Electronic Navigation Conference – International Association of Marine Aids to

Navigation and Lighthouse Authorities – London, England – July 4, 2007

The Law of E-navigation

AIS Conference – Seattle, Washington – October 16, 2006

Oily Water Separators & Oil Record Books

New York City Law Association, Admiralty & Maritime Committee – New York City, NY
– May 2, 2006

Transparency – Reporting & Recordkeeping – Obligations & Liabilities

CMA Conference – Stamford, Connecticut - March 22, 2006

Port and maritime security issues impacting transportation of chemicals

Chemical Week Conference – Phoenix, Arizona – January 23, 2006

Navigating around birds, terrorists, and prison: Legal issues in spill response

Clean Gulf Conference – Tampa, Florida – Thursday, November 18, 2004

Balancing expectations

API Tanker Conference – San Diego, California – June 28, 2004

Maritime Security – The Role of Salvors and Towage Companies

International Tug & Salvage Conference – Boca Raton, Florida – Wednesday, April 28, 2004

International law of the sea and homeland security

IEEE Homeland Security Technology Workshop – Warwick, Rhode Island – December 11, 2003

U.S. Port Security

Danish Shipowners' Association – Copenhagen, Denmark – Wednesday, June 18, 2003

U.S. Maritime Law and Its Effect on the International Shipping Community

Norwegian Shipowners' Association – Oslo, Norway – Tuesday, June 17, 2003

New Maritime Security Requirements

IDGA Maritime Homeland Security Conference – Arlington, Virginia – May 20, 2003

Impact of Maritime Security on Supply Chain Logistics

Supply Chain Logistics Council – Manufacturers Alliance/MAPI – Coral Gables, Florida
– April 10, 2003